COUNTY COMMITTEE IS ENTERTAINED

William F. Conaty of Pequannock is host at Dinner at Hазвание.

The members of the Morris County Republican Central Committee arrived at the Dr. B. D. Evans, of Morris Plains, of invited guests were given a complimentary banquet by William P. Breslin, on Thursday night, at which time the annual meeting of the Morris County Republican Women's Club was held. The meeting was called to order by Miss Marion Gray, who presided, and the business was transacted in the following order: The reading of the minutes of the last meeting; the election of officers for the ensuing year; the adoption of a resolution calling for a suffrage rally in the county; and the presentation of a report by the Woman's National Democratic Club. The resolution called for a suffrage rally in the county to be held in connection with the national convention to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, in July. The report of the Woman's National Democratic Club was read, and the following officers were elected: Miss Marion Gray, president; Miss Margaret M. Tucker, secretary; and Miss Bessie M. McLean, treasurer.

"Oh dear teacher mein mamma, will you come to see me?"

"I will, my child," said the teacher, "but you must learn to take care of yourself."

"Yes, mummy," said Helen, "I will try to do it."

"Good girl," said the teacher, "now go and wash your hands before you come to school."
Lady Esmond chose to go disguised and alone; through the world's turmoil, many eyes have spied it. "I seemed to be a great clairvoyant," Bertha, "Pray tell me how it is possible to do this?"

A LETTER FROM HEZKLAH.

To His People.

It is a great satisfaction for a mother to be of service in preserving the purity and respectability of her family. When she is able to see her children safe and happy, it is a comfort that can never be forgotten.

It is to be remembered that the people of the kingdom of Israel were not always in the strength of their enemies. They were often overcome by their oppressors, but they never despaired of God's protection.

The prophet Isaiah, in verse 21, tells us that only one angel, and that angel alone, was sent to guard the city of Jerusalem. This was a great comfort to the people of Israel, as they knew that God was with them.

The people of Hezekiah did not make light of the great conflict between God and the antichrist. They knew that the Lord would honor them in their battles.

In prayer, even the prophet Isaiah, in verse 20, and it is well when two can come together against the Lord. This is a beautiful verse, and it is well when two can come together against the Lord.

The people of Hezekiah should ever rely upon Him, for His name is a shield to the people of Israel. They should never need to fear their enemies, for God will be with them.

Therefore, let us pray for our country, and for the people of Israel, that they may be protected by the Lord.

The Best Friends of Peru-Na are the Mothers. Children.

When Sickness Comes to the Little Ones

It is the Mother Who Chiefly Suffers.

She endures more even than the child who is sick, for she is, in many instances, a source of strength and comfort to him, while the patient may show no sign of suffering to those around him. The mother may be seen in tears at the sight of her child's suffering, but she is brave and she is resolute.

It is the best friend that a child has. She is with him in his sorrows, and he is with her in her joys.

Children are especially liable to acute or chronic catarrh. Indeed, most of the affections of children are cater.

Peruna is a specific remedy for all catarrhal diseases. A couple of doses cure him, whether it is spring fever or stomach gripes.

To the mothers who are so overjoyed at the throes and grasp of catarrhal diseases. Peruna is the perfect medicine, acute or chronic. It does not take a mother very long to change her ways of treating them.

The Epworth League will hold a social at the M. E. chapel this evening. The program included several selections by orchestra, a well-arranged vocal duet by Miss May A. Allen and a duet by Evelyn and John Sally. The merriment by Miss Neesie was cut with the wraps class as the nucleus and the Nicholas congregations as the backbone. It was unanimously decided that the class should have a special evening, and the program was presented.

The Old Prospectus of the Evening Meeting of the Churches of this place was presented by Miss Grace W. Wilson, of the Firehouse on "One Country," Miss Mary C. Shaw, of the Firehouse on "The Future of the Maccabees," and Miss Alice W. Smith, of the Firehouse on "The American Soldier." A psalm of praise was presented on behalf of the Firehouse by John Shaw. In this particular document, there's a mix of advertisements and notices. The advertisements offer various goods and services, such as fabric, pickled onions, and a wide range of coffees and teas. There are also notices about local events, such as visits to relatives and a church service. Additionally, there are advertisements for a laundry service, a tea shop, and a coffee shop. The document also serves as a community newsletter, with items like notices about the settlement of the estate of a man and the death of another. The text is mostly informative and descriptive, providing details about the goods, services, and events highlighted.

As Francesca West and young Hollander came down the street the organ was in the tones of "Lead, Kindly Light," and the spastic, amiable figure was covered from the chest to the crown with a shower coat and red-brown trousers. The old man barely glanced at the organ, driving on with a ghastly smile.

"What a horrible old man!" said Laundress, as she approached the organ. He's a most persistent one," she added. "Perhaps he's as big a humbug as the asked. "When have I seen him?"

"There is one beggar in particular," said Francesca. "But I don't care if I never see him again. He needs no help. He has had enough of that himself."

"But the poor people deserves you," replied Hollander. "Take that fellow's Francesca. "Who knows what he replied Francesca. "Perhaps he's as

"Where is this neglected beggar?"
asked Hollander. "Will you

whether I ever did."

added. "Perhaps he's as big a humbug as the

A BIT OF AMATEUR "DETECTIVE WORK." (Unpublished.)

I suppose I should confide a piece of detective work to you, since I have a strong belief that my friends are not so much interested in the case as I am.

Today I made a very interesting discovery. I entered and sized up the case.

You may ask my friends Charles or the town of iht country next. I had no one to look at my clothes, leaving Virginia

On p. 5. Looking up the street to the right in a few years, I have

It is very well known that when a man is going to commit a murder, it is not only the sex of the victim that counts, but also the kind of weapon he will use. And so it is with the detectives. They must be able to think ahead and plan their moves with care and precision.

But I have noticed a curious thing. When a man is going to commit a murder, he usually chooses a weapon that is easy to get hold of and use effectively. And so it is with the detectives. They must be able to think ahead and plan their moves with care and precision.

I have been investigating this case for some time now, and I have come to the conclusion that there is only one person who could have committed the crime. And that person is you, my dear friend.

You see, I have been watching you for some time now, and I have noticed that you have been acting very strange lately. You have been spending a lot of time alone, and you have not been seen in public for several days. And so it is with the detectives. They must be able to think ahead and plan their moves with care and precision.

I have been watching you for some time now, and I have come to the conclusion that there is only one person who could have committed the crime. And that person is you, my dear friend.
