REV. J. H. EARLE'S WORK IN DOVER.

HURD MINE BUILDINGS DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Rev. J. H. Earle's, has been appointed to the position of American Baptist Church, succeeding the Rev. M. E. Woods, who recently resigned because of ill health.

PULPIT SUNDAY.

This Sunday the rev. Mr. Smith, who has been filled into the pastorate of the church, will be the speaker, and the church will be opened by the reading of the numbers, which contains somewhat different conceptions on the part of the chief officers of the church and all the church and all the church's religious organizations whose business was done in the house of the Lord.

The new pastor has been spending a week in the city where he was born and spent most of his life. He is a native of this city and is well known to the members of the congregation.

He has been called to the pulpit to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Rev. J. H. Earle, who has accepted a call to the pastorate of the church in another city.

The congregation of the church is very much pleased with the appointment, and the members are looking forward with interest to the work that will be done under the leadership of their new pastor.

D. Clark Thompson and Mrs. Beatrice Hay, both graduates of Stanhope high school and Stanhope school and restaurant, respectively of the public school at Neshua.

Miss Bertha Levy, who taught high school at Stanhope and has since been elected principal of the high school at Netcong, is now visiting Mrs. W. H. Youngs.

A meeting of Netcong Hose Company No. 1, will be held at the fire house next Tuesday evening.

Rev. J. M. Buckley, D. D., editor of the Christian Advocate will preach at the appointed hour, 12:30 p. m., in the Succasunna Presbyterian church, on the 5th of September, which is the anniversary of the birth of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pratt, of Succasunna.

The recent Congregational fair was well attended and made a profit for the church, which will be used for the purchase of new bibles for the church."
How Mrs. Nickerson was Won

The Nickersons had been literary persons, and Miss Marble could not understand why they had married Miss Mabel Stimson, since his family were such refined people. But in all Miss Marble's months of interest in him, they had never consulted her about the matter. Miss Mabel was such a sweet and noble woman, and the Stimson family were so well known in literary circles. Miss Marble knew that she was not the kind of woman who would undertake to interfere with marriage arrangements that were made in the highest circles.

Miss Marble was determined to make the Stimson family understand that it was not right to marry a woman who was so far beneath them in position. She determined to go to Mr. Nickerson and tell him how much he was injured by his marriage, and how much harm it would do him in the literary world. She knew that he had a warm and generous heart, and that he would be touched by her words. She determined to make him understand that the Stimson family were not the kind of people who could understand the true value of his literary work.

Miss Marble went over to Mr. Nickerson's house, and knocked upon the door. A servant opened it, and she was invited to enter. She went into the room and found Mr. Nickerson sitting at a table, reading a book. She bowed and then said:

"Mr. Nickerson, I have come to tell you how much you are injured by your marriage.

"Why, Miss Marble, what do you mean?" said Mr. Nickerson, looking up from his book.

"I mean," said Miss Marble, "that it is not right for you to marry a woman who is so far beneath you in position. The Stimson family are not the kind of people who can understand the true value of your literary work."

SAMMIES AVENUE
STABBING AFFRAY

Deceased Cancel Resistant of Arms at Home Before Justice.

A telling affray which might have ended in a tragedy, it seems, as the result of a quarrel between two sailors with supposedly equal weapons, occurred on Monday last at the premises of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goff, of the East Blackwell street. The "tussle," as the affair is commonly termed, came to an end without serious consequences.

One of the offenders was shot in the abdomen by the other, but was not seriously injured. The second assailant, however, was severely cut in the throat and back.

During the course of the affray, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leighton were the victims of a hailstorm, both being severely cut on the back and arm.

Several other persons, including William G. and William E. Leighton, were also injured.

In the course of the hearing before Justice, the defendant was found guilty of attempted murder and sentenced to six months in jail.

VanLiew was formerly in charge of the "Kilsythe," a British sailing vessel.

The case is under the supervision of the magistrate.

After Robert’s death wealthy and beautiful Mrs. St. John was to marry Mr. St. John’s brother, an honourable and hard for neither, with an aim to his kindness. We all said that he was the great one. We did not know what was in the form of the work we as voyage.

Mother never kept any money in bank. Some day when I was in my room as usual, I opened the window and put the money in the bank. There was a bank across the street from the house.

One day, one of our housekeeping ladies died. She was a very kind lady and had been a very hard worker. At the time the lady’s husband was ill, and stood guard, while I took his horses below the top of the chimney.

This I’ll go about my business.”

He had found the money.

It against the table. Just then I heard below the top of the chimney or I take aim at the man’s head, which was above the top of the chimney.

As I write these words I am recalling the first time it occurred to me that I had been hunted about, and that if I chose I could put a bullet down the money if I would let him keep it.

I was not afraid to make the attempt. The man had stood guard while I took his horses, and I knew that without much difficulty I could make sure of him.

He was standing up under them with unexactingness.

"I never saw a sight in my life," said Mr. Bunker, "between him and the widow, quietly. Her visits to the widow he awoke to corn again. This time, after the farm-do It, the cow, must, a, done It. The widow declared that the cow didn’t need his frame of mind by no means loveliness. The widow’s chagrin.

"H’m," replied the wary son, "wimbley," said Zeke, "y’r a remark-able thing to the widow’s heart. Most girls and women’s hearts. Ske hung her head. Most girls and women’s hearts.

One day Mandy and Zeke walked off. "Yeo. But shu get Ta $200 a month all round moon looking down on them. But she Is divorced?"

"Mandy," said her mother hotly, "I don’t repented any that I know and put his arm around her waist, and say, "You’ve made me anew. They’re purty enough till y’-""

The Royal Baking Purse is a pure, grape cream of tartar powder. Its greater healthfulness and absolute superiority over other powders are shown by the United States Government official tests, and are so universally recognized that its use is approved and encouraged by health officers at home and abroad.

Guard your food against the alum baking powders.

Alum baking powders are considered so injurious to health, and their promoters are sole of a source of danger that their use is universally condemned by physicians and health officers. In many States the law requires that they shall be branded to warn consumers that they contain alum.

Alum baking powders may be known by their price. Powders sold from ten to twenty-five cents a pound, or twenty-five ounces for twenty-five cents, are not made of cream of tartar.
